Circular Letter HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
 88 Milk Street, Boston, Mass., Feb. 27, 1915.

The Commander-in-Chief has already attended Department Encampments in Maine, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Potomac, and large Camp-fires in New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, North Carolina, New Hampshire, Ohio, Illinois, Nebraska, Colorado and Wyoming and Missouri, all of which Departments he found in flourishing condition.

Many Departments reported an increase in numbers. The Comrade greeted him at numerous attended meetings, most affectionately and enthusiastically.

The Commander-in-Chief and Adjutant General have accepted invitations to the Department Encampments and Camp-fires named below, and fully intend to be present:

New Hampshire	Concord	April 18
Delaware	Wilmington	" 18
Maryland	Baltimore	" 18
Georgia	Atlanta	" 21
Tennessee	Chattanooga	" 22 (Camp-fire)
Alabama	Evans	" 24-25
Arkansas	Hot Springs	" 28-29
La. & Miss.	New Orleans, La.	May 2
Texas	Dallas	" 4
New Mexico	Albuquerque	" 5
Calif. & Nev.	Mayville, Cal.	" 10-11-12
Utah	Ogden	" 12
Colo. & Wyo.	Denver, Colo.	" 17
Nebraska	Grand Island	" 19
Kansas	Topeka	" 22
Illinois	Rockford	" 24-25
Massachusetts	Boston	" 25 (Memorial Day)
Connecticut	Bristol	June 2-3
Pennsylvania	Reading	" 4-5
Ohio	Washington Court House	" 6-7-8-9
Wisconsin	La Crosse	" 12-14
Indiana	Madison	" 16-17
Michigan	Traverse City	" 20-21
New York	Syracuse	" 21-22
New Jersey	Trenton	" 23-25

As it will be impossible to change his itinerary, owing to the fact that Departments have fixed the dates given above for their Encampments, the Commander-in-Chief hopes he may be able to visit, between the 10th and 20th of July, the following named Departments: Iowa, Minnesota, South Dakota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington and Alaska, and attend Camp-fires at cities situated on a through line railroad over which he can travel rapidly from one Camp-fire to another on his way to Oregon and Washington and Alaska; thus compensating himself in part for the great disappointment he feels in not being able to visit their Encampments.

Not the least of the pleasures anticipated by the Commander-in-Chief in his contemplated visits to the Encampments and Camp-fires, is the opportunity that will thus be afforded him to greet the members of his Staff, who, it is hoped, will plan to meet him on his arrival in their respective Departments, when it is perfectly convenient to do so.

By command of
WILMON W. BLACKMAR
 Commander-in-Chief.
