GENERAL ORDERS }
No. 12. }

St. Louis, Mo., April 20th, 1900.

I. Wednesday, May 30th, next, thirty-two years ago, our beloved and lamented Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, JOHN A. LOGAN, in General Orders No. 11, proclaimed and inaugurated as Memorial Day and all honor to a patriotic and grateful people whose love and reverence have consecrated this day.

Again our honored Chieftain, ALBERT D. SHAW in a manner dear to every loyal heart and the memories of the past, reminds us of that sacred duty near to hand, of paying homage to the eternal camp-ground of our departed comrades.

In a manner becoming the occasion, amid taps of muffled drums and requiems of the solemn tattoo, let us assemble in the citadels of the dead to garland the heavenly canopied mounds with nature's sweetest blossoms, and raise o'er the mortal remains of each their once beloved "Old Glory."

Let our actions on this day be an inspiration of love and patriotism for home and country, and evidence to the world that the great American Republic appreciates the sacrifices of its heroes that went forth for freedom and justice.

Like glittering dew-drops beneath the golden sunshine rays, our columns are quickly passing from view, and soon none will be left of the mighty hosts who wore the blue in 'sixty-one and 'five.

Let us invite to our assistance our devoted auxiliaries and friends, and convey to the rising generations the principles of Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty, that they may cherish and perpetuate the results of our trials and tribulations and a "Nation's Sabbath Day."

II. The established custom of attending Divine Worship on the Sunday preceding Memorial Day is enjoined upon every Post.

III. All pastimes and ceremonies prejudicial to the solemnity of the occasion should be discouraged.

By Command of JOHN W. SCOTT, Department Commander:

THOS. B. RODGERS,
Assistant Adjutant General.

GENERAL ORDERS } HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
No. 7. } INDEPENDENCE HALL,
PHILADELPHIA, April 14, 1900.

I. The Commander-in-Chief directs especial attention to the necessity of the organization at large assisting the comrades of the Southern Departments in the work of Memorial Day in their several localities. Upon them devolves the duty of paying proper tribute to the soldier dead of the Nation who are buried in the various National Cemeteries throughout the Southland. The membership of the Southern Departments is not large, but the comrades are devoted and enthusiastic, and will see to it that every grave of a Union soldier or sailor receives on Memorial Day its tribute of flag and flowers; but they must have aid, and contributions are therefore earnestly solicited from Posts and comrades. Flags must be furnished and financial help must be given, and to that end Department Commanders will, in their respective Departments, direct attention to the matter and urge prompt and liberal contributions. Remittances should be made direct to Thos. J. Stewart, Adjutant General, Independence Hall, Philadelphia, who will duly acknowledge the same to donors, make proper record, and transmit amount to the Quartermaster General, who will make detailed statement to the National Encampment. Let the remittances be prompt and the donations as liberal as possible. Every Post can give something, and the comrades in more favored localities should be willing to aid those who even though less favored by helpful surroundings, willingly perform the sacred duty of remembering in tribute, the brave soldiers "who rest where they wearied and sleep where they fell."

II. National Headquarters will be established at the Palmer House, Chicago, during the sessions of the Thirty-fourth National Encampment August 27th to September 1st.

The tendency of Posts and comrades to delay making arrangements for quarters during the National Encampment has, in the past, resulted in disappointment and discomfort. The work of the Local Committee on quarters has so far progressed, that applications can now be disposed of promptly and satisfactorily, and Posts are urged to at once communicate with the Secretary of the Committee E. A. Bigelow, Room 611, "The Womans' Temple," 184 La Salle Street, Chicago.

III. The Commander-in-Chief has just concluded a tour of official visitations to the Southern Departments, and takes pleasure in announcing to the Comradeship of the Grand Army of the Republic that our Comrades in the Southern Section of the Nation are upholding, by a devotion that is superb, the principles of Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty. The welcome extended the Commander-in-Chief was of that warm fraternal character that has, during the years past, bound together the Comrades of the Grand Army and made the organization a great school of National Patriotism.

For all the kindnesses and courtesies extended, the Commander-in-Chief is deeply grateful.

IV. The Chaplain-in-Chief, Rev. J. L. Grimm, (P. O. address Harrisburg, Pa.,) desires to make a complete and valuable statistical report to the Thirty-fourth National Encampment, and to that end requests Post and Department Chaplains to be prompt and faithful in compiling and forwarding reports immediately after Memorial Day, May 30th next. The Thirty-third National Encampment directed Department Commanders to give this matter careful attention. Post Chaplains report to the Department Chaplain; Department Chaplains report to the Chaplain-in-Chief. Blanks for these reports will be transmitted in due time.

V. The Record and Pension Office, War Department, Washington, D. C., under the able administration of Brigadier General F. C. Ainsworth, has compiled the record of every soldier of the Army engaged in the War for the Suppression of the Rebellion. In many instances original discharge certificates have found their way to this office and are filed there, awaiting advices or demands from the owner or his heirs. Many discharges of soldiers have been lost by the owner, and when found have been turned over to Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic; others have been filed with Pension Agents, and thereafter the soldier has died and his discharge certificate remained in the possession of the Agent. In General Orders from National and Department Headquarters attention is repeatedly called to the fact of discharges having been found and awaiting the owner.

The Record and Pension Office has kindly suggested the wisdom of having all such discharges forwarded there, to be filed with the individual record of the soldier as personal papers, which will be delivered to the soldier or his legal heirs, or representatives, upon proper proof or identification. This is considered a most wise provision, and is most heartily approved by the Commander-in-Chief who urges a compliance therewith.

Address all communications to Record and Pension Office,

War Department,
Washington, D. C.

Proper acknowledgment will be made of all papers received.

VI. Announcement is made of the death of the following members of the National Encampment and of National Officers:

House of Representatives U. S.,

Washington, D. C., St. Louis, Oct. 15th, 1900

Mr. Henry Geiken,

Champion City, Mo.

Dear Sir:-

Will you have the kindness to send me a list of the names of the Grand Army Post of which you are commander?

By complying with this request at your earliest convenience you will greatly oblige,

Yours very truly,

Richard Bartholdt.
