A Big Day For The Spreader Business

The Year Was 1911 and the well-known implement and hardware dealers of Greenfield, Morris & White, delivered 25 of the famous Kemp No. 2 manure spreaders to area farmers. This was the first "mass" delivery of any type implement in the whole of Southwest Missouri.

Societies.— Greenfield Post No. 75, G. A. R., was organized May 12, 1883, with ten charter members, and the whole number mustered up to this writing has been 121. Many have withdrawn to join other posts since organized, four have died, and some have been suspended, leaving about fifty as the present membership. Major C. W. Griffith was the first post commander, and of the present officers Capt. John W. Davis is commander, and C. Z. Russell, adjutant.

Greenfield Lodge No. 56, A. O. U. W. was organized in

MISSOURI GAR POST RECORDS PROJECT

POST NAME: Greenfield      NUMBER: 75      LOCATION: Greenfield, Dade County, Missouri

BRIEF HISTORY: The Greenfield Post was an active Post and many of its members are buried in the Greenfield City Cemetery.

Description of Post Records: As of this date there are records that are the Secretary reports that date from 1903 to 1908. They consist of 168 pages. They are complete and give the location of the meeting place. At a later date in the records it gives their meeting place as the GAR Hall. I am not sure whether it is the same as the facility listed below.

Meeting Facility: These records are kept in the Warren Collection, Dade County Library Assoc. 209 S. Main St. Greenfield, MO 65661. The enclosed picture is the picture of Helphenstine Hall. The name on the top of the front of the building is A Helphenstine. The A stands for Amos Helphenstine who was the original owner of the building. This building is located on the Northwest corner of the square in Greenfield, MO. It is Northeast corner of College Street and Atison Street across from the courthouse.

Additional Information: The following are the names of the men listed in the Missouri Department of GAR death Rolls.
