Brief History of the G.A.R. Post (use separate document if necessary):

Organized in May 1882, with 44 members ; John burns, post commander. The past year the post completed a good hall, 24 x 70 feet in size, costing $1,500. Recently it has established a Grand Army Literary Club, before which it is proposed to have monthly lectures. The post now has a healthy organization, a good strong membership, is in first rate financial condition, and is located in a community whose members sympathize with its objects and admire its character.
