Mr. Busch,

Please feel free to post the images, provided proper attribution is given to the Butler Center.

You might also be interested to know, if you don't already, that we have additional GAR material in the Paul Dolle Civil War Collection. Here's a link to the collection finding aid --

Please let me know if you have any additional questions.

Sincerely,

Brian,

Will you tend to this or arrange for someone else to?

Thanks,

D.S.

Dear Sir:

The Sons of Union Veterans in Arkansas and Missouri are getting ready to post GAR records on their website in the next few months. I noted that you have the attached records/photos on line and was wondering if we could post the copies as I show them in the Mcpherson Post.pdf to the appropriate post's pdf file. We are doing this to provide genealogical services and to preserve the memory of the GAR. There are also three pictures of Arkansas GAR Headquarters orders we would like to similarly post, but I can't get the size down to send through your firewall.

I am attaching a file [70 King .pdf] similar to the one we would create for the McPherson post and the Arkansas GAR HQ so you can see what we are doing for the 700 posts in Missouri and Arkansas.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Walt Busch, PDC

Historical Records Coordinator
