

James H. Hunter 1922

Comrade James H. Hunter, Past Department Commander, died at his home in Jackson, Tenn., March 14, 1928 at the age of 88 years. He enlisted December 16th, 1864 in Company C, 84th Illinois Infantry and was transferred to Company F, 21st Illinois Infantry and was mustered out December 16, 1865. He joined Farragut-Thomas Post No. 8 of this Department, November 21, 1918 and was elected Department Commander in May 1922. He was a loyal comrade, respected and held in esteem by all who knew him.

He was 19 when he joined the army on December 16, 1863 which places his birth year around 1844. His nativity was from Cincinnati, OH and when enlisting lived in Macomb, IL, working as a farmer.

