

Leo Rassieur 1890

Captain 30th Missouri Infantry
US Volunteers
(19 April 1844 Prussia – 1 June 1929 Missouri)

34th Commander-in-Chief, Grand
Army of the Republic (1900/1901)
Original Member, Missouri
Commandery, Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the U.S.

RASSIEUR, Leo, lawyer; born in Wadern, Prussia, Germany, April 19, 1844; son of Theodore and Margaret (Klauck) Rassieur; removed from Germany to the United States with parents in early childhood and was educated in St. Louis public schools, graduating from Central High School in 1861; enlisted in First Missouri Infantry Volunteers, U. S. R. C., 1861, as private, serving four years in Union Army as soldier and officer, and being mustered

LEO RASSIEUR, PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER.

LEO RASSIEUR

Department Commander, 1889-1890

Commander-in-Chief, 1900-1901 out in 1865, after having been commissioned major of the Thirtieth Missouri Infantry Volunteers; married, July 9, 1872, Mary C. Kammerer, of Wheeling, Va. (now W. Va.); children: Estelle E., Cora M. (Mrs. George B. Parsons), Leo, Jr. Taught in public schools of St. Louis, 1866-67, at same time studying law, and was admitted to bar at St. Louis, Apr. 1, 1867, engaging in practice of law; elected attorney for the Board of Public Schools of St. Louis, serving from 1880 to 1890; elected November, 1894, and served four years from Jan. 1, 1895, as judge of the Probate Court of St. Louis; declined renomination, and since Jan. 1, 1899, has been actively engaged in general practice of law. Member of St. Louis Bar Association. Republican: presidential elector and chairman electoral college State of Missouri, 1908. Member Frank P.

Blair Post 1, G. A. R., and was commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic of the United States, 1900-1901. Member St. Louis Gymnastic Society. Clubs: Union, Western Rowing (founder and president for thirteen years).

Office: 406 Market St.

Residence: 2335 Whittemore Pl.

He is buried at Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis, MO.