Brief History

Located in North St. Louis at the corner of North Broadway and Salisbury

Other than doing what I did below and compiling records for the post from Death records and Dept of Mo Encampment Books and misc sources, they most likely do not exist.

Meeting Facility (structure still exist? stand alone building or shared-use building? identify specific location)

Unless the building was the one behind the parking lot (not determined at this time) the building has been torn down long ago.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISI ONLY 69 CIVIL WAR VETERANS IN ST. LOUIS

Youngest is P. H. Callahan, 81, Who Served in Union Army.

Sixty-five years since Lee's surrender finds only 11 of his former followers surviving in St. Louis and 58 Union veterans still living. Many were too feeble to take part in Memorial Day services today, the youngest in the city, P. H. Callahan, a Union veteran, being 81
years old.

At one time flourishing organizations, the Grand Army of the Republic and United Confederate Veterans today are represented by a few white-haired men and gradually diminishing membership lists.
It is estimated that there were once 3000 Confederate veterans in the city and from 3000 to 5000
Union men.

In its peak years the Confederate Group numbered from 20,000 to 25,000 in Missouri. This has narrowed down to less than 2000. Tho Union veterans have shrunk likewise from 25,000 to 500.

The surviving members of both sides in St. Louis are:

RESEARCH CONCERNING PICTURE OF GAR MEMBERS IN FRONT OF A STORE IN BLACKJACK MISSOURI

The picture only identifies one soldier, Ernst Schroeder. Ernst was a member of Harry P Harding Post 107 in North St Louis. Therefore, it is likely that all or most of these soldiers were members of that post. – Walt Busch 2016

Mounted on a 7 5/8" x 6.25" matte, the photo opening is 3 1/8" x 4.5", ready for picture frame. Written on the back "A gathering of Civil War Veterans and their wives. Some were friends of Ernst Schroeder, Grandpa Schroeder's dad. This group belonged to the GAR (Grand Army of the Republic). In front of Hortwigs Store, Parker Road and Old Halls Ferry. There was a sticky note on the front from the estate that read Black Jack Missouri GAR. The Hortwigs Store was in Black Jack and was likely also GA Hortwigs and Hortwigs Brothers. It may have resided where Iggy's is now. There was an Ernst Schroeder that served for the Union as a Private in Co. A with the 2nd. Reg. MO Inf.
