It is claimed he was the youngest soldier that shouldered a musket and served throughout the Civil War. After discharge, by reason of expiration of term of service, he re-enlisted in Company B, 145th Indiana Volunteers, January 17, 1865, and was mustered out with the regiment after the close of the war. Belonged to the 13th Corps in the Army of Tennessee, and also to the Army of the Cumberland; was in the battles at Cumberland Gap, Chickasaw Bayou, Arkansas Post, Port Gibson, Grand Gulf, Champion Hill, Black River Bridge, siege of Vicksburg, Jackson, Miss., Rapides, La., and other engagements; after he returned to private life pursued for several years the occupation of lumberman; was then for a time employed on the guard-vessel at Jeffersonville, on the Ohio River; then went to farming, and in 1881 removed with his family to a homestead in Bollinger County, Mo., where he at present resides; is a member of Erich Pape Post, G. A. R., at Bollinger Mills, Mo., and is its adjutant, which office he has held for two terms.
