

D. Christopher Warren 2011-2012

Born in Missouri in 1979, Chris became interested in Civil War history at age eight. He joined the SUVCW (Grant Camp) in 2004 and was soon elected Camp JVC . In 2006 he founded the McCormick Camp 215 in Farmington, MO, and since served several terms as Camp Commander. In 2008, he founded the 47th Missouri Infantry, Company E – SVR, and has risen to first lieutenant. During his SUVCW years, he received the Blair Award and Meritorious Services Awards (Department, National, & SVR).

In 2011, he advanced to fill an unexpired term as Department Commander, and then was elected for a full term. He presented two camps with charters during his tenure. Chris, his wife Twyla, and their daughter Abbie, stay very active in Civil War programs with the SUVCW & ASUVCW. In 2016, the Missouri House of Representatives & Senate honored them with resolutions for their long-standing service & volunteer work with Civil War related programs.

He holds a Master of Arts degree in Civil War Military History and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Primary Education & Social Studies. He is also an American History instructor at Mineral Area College, Park Hills, Missouri.