

Glennon G. Alsop 2014

Nutter-Beasley in October, 2016.

I began Civil War reenacting in 1990 with the 1st Mo. Light Artillery, the origin of the Turner Brigade. That led to my joining the Sherman camp of the Sons and eventually becoming a charter member of the Major Francis Wilhelmi Camp #17. In 2014 I was elected Department Commander of the Department of Missouri and was given the honor of the Francis P. Blair Jr. award for my work with graves registrations.

I was born in in St. Louis at what is now Mercy Medical Center in 1965. My parents and 4 brothers moved to St. Clair in Franklin County in 1972 where I continue to live. I began working at St. Johns' Mercy Hospital, now Mercy Hospital Washington in 1985. I am now the Lieutenant of the Public Safety Department. I am engaged to be married to Denise
