Dear Comrades all,

When I received the card I fully intended to meet you all at Memphis but I am, ^{not} in condition to travel alone and having no one to go with me I had to give it up. I have not seen any of my comrades since about 1865. I am now nearly 82 years old and I think I was about the youngest member of the 21st. Mo. born Oct 21 1847. although I cannot be with you my heart is with you, I would like to write a lot more but my hands cramp so bad that I can not write but a little at a time. It certainly is a great disapointment to me not to be able to be with you

Hoping that I may be able in the near future to make the trip and meet at least some of the old boys

With many regrets I am sincerely yours

Murray Post, No. 179, G. A. R.—The first meeting of this post, held under its charter, was on the 21st of June, 1884, when the first officers were elected, as follows: R. D. Sigler, of the Thirtieth Iowa Infantry; Hudson Rice, Archibald P. Harbor, Daniel Deen, William P. Matthias, William Driscoll, Col. Joseph G. Best, Charles F. Oliver, George W. Stine, Thomas F. Durnall, of the One Hundred and Sixteenth Illinois Infantry; Edwin A. Howard, of the Fifty-ninth Illinois Infantry; John W. Barnes, of the Second Illinois Cavalry; William S. Since the organization of this post it has lost only two members by death, viz.: Hudson Rice who died in August, 1885, and Col. Joseph G. Best who died in August, 1887. The membership at the present writing is about sixty, all of whom, like their comrades everywhere, are on the down hill side of life, and in the course of nature, must soon close their pilgrimage here, and assume the realities of the world to come. The post holds its meetings in the Odd Fellows hall on the west side of the public square.
