FROM THE HISTORY OF LINCOLN COUNTY

Maj. A. Bartlett Post No. 289, Grand Army of the Republic, was chartered October 13, 1886, with the following charter members, viz.: John W. Moore, J. W. East, L. Carter, J. Altman, M. Dalton, William Colbert, L. B. Sitton, F. A. Colbert, N. Dunard, J. J. Mallan, D. H. Cannon, James Murphy, W. B. Seay, J. W. Hunter, P. Herbel, L. Howell, F. Wirshing, W. P. Gladson, Joe Page, W. J. Cook, F. M. Howell and F. M. Campbell. At this writing the post has forty members.

David Hubbard Cannon was born in Lincoln County, Missouri. He was a veteran of the Civil War, enlisting in the 10th Missouri Cavalry, commanded by Col. Fred Morsey, in January 1862, which was later merged into the 3rd Missouri State Militia. He was an orderly sergeant of Company G, commanded by Captains Richard Wommack and James Wilson, and his regiment was successively commanded by Colonels Edwin Smart and Richard G. Woods on. He was mustered out in February of 1865, and was later First Lieutenant and Adjutant of the 64th Regiment of Missouri Volunteers, and was a member of the Major Bartlett Post No. 289 of the Grand Army of the Republic and served as its Commander. He was elected Justice of the Peace of Bedford Township August 2, 1858, and was commissioned a notary public in 1875. Cannon Cemetery, Hawk Point, Lincoln County, Missouri.

I recently was able to get a copy of this photo of me local man who was a Civil War and a Mexican war veteran and was a member of our local Troy Missouri GAR post 289.

It is hard to make out in the photo but besides the GAR medal, there is a ribbon that says Bartlett post no. 289, Troy Mo

The ribbon was very hard to make out the words on, but I was able to take it to a local jeweler who has a strong magnifying glass and he was able to read the letters that I was not able to, the words that said Post No. 289.

Also included in this email is a photo of it comes from our local historical society. The man who is the subject of the photo, name was Nicholas Dunard. I have been able to find more information about him on ancestry.com. And I went to your GAR site and was able to see that post 289 is associated with Major Bartlett. Do you have any information about major Bartlett and why he may have been the name sake of the local post?

In the group photo, Mr. Nicholas Dunard is in the front row second from the left. You can compare the group photo to an individual photo with his grandchildren. That is the same man. Do you know what year Post 289 was formed? I may be able to go thru some historical society newspapers and find some kind of newspaper articles.

died at the home of his son, six miles north of Troy, April 19, 1902. Funeral services were conducted there Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, by Rev. B. F. DeJarnatt, after which the remains were interred at the Sulphur Lick cemetery.

He was born August 31, 1825, at Swampfield, High State, Germany, and came to this country at the age of 20. May 4, 1854, he was married to Miss Adaline Nagle, the union being blessed with nine children, six of whom are living: Fritz, of Matson, Mo.; Charlie, Linn's Mill; Sophia Jurgemeier, Truxton; Henry, Jonesburg; David, Wright City, and July, with whom he has made his home for the past ten years. His wife preceded him to the grave 27 years.

Mr. Dunard served in both the Mexican and civil wars, spending nine years as a soldier. He was a member of the Grand Army post at Troy. His home has been in Warren and Lincoln counties since coming to this country, and he was a quiet, honorable citizen, esteemed by his neighbors.
