

Alan Wayne Heidbreder (1946-2020)

Alan Wayne Heidbreder, age 73, of Columbia, passed away on May 16, 2020 at Boone Hospital in Columbia.

Alan was born near Russellville, the son of Guilford Heidbreder and Edna (Rockelman) Heidbreder, both of whom preceded him in death. On June 14, 1969, Alan was united in marriage to Rosalyn Duvall, who survives. Along with his wife, Alan is survived by numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and a special Godchild.

He graduated from Russellville High School in 1964. After high school, Alan went to Lincoln University and graduated in 1969. He was also preceded in death by one brother, Carl Heidbreder. He served in the U.S. Army from September 1969 to August 1971. He was an accountant at MFA Inc, Columbia Office Supply, Woodhaven and OATS.

Alan was a member of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church in Columbia and served as the church treasurer for many years. He was a member of the American Legion Post 202 in Columbia and was a member and officer with the Columbia Tiger Camp, Sons of the Union Veterans of the Civil War. Alan volunteered and took his flight with the Central Missouri Honor Flight. He was an active member of Central Missouri Wood Carvers and volunteered at the Columbia Senior Activity Center. He loved to travel and collect Native American artifacts. His family fondly remembers his love of antiquing.

Per the CDC recommendations, social distancing recommendations were observed. The visitation was held from noon to 3 p.m. on Wednesday, May 20 at Windmill Ridge Funeral Service, with the service following at 3 p.m. with Rev. Earl Fuller officiating. Interment was at the Sappington Community Chapel Cemetery with full military honors.

Memorials are suggested to Central Missouri Honor Flight and the Columbia Senior Activity Center.

Online messages to the family may be contributed at www.windmillridgefuneralservice.com.