CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES AT AGE OF 101

ST. CHARLES, Mo., March 27
AP—Dr. George Washington Tainter, who was 101 years old last July and who served with both the Army and Navy during the civil war, died last night.

At 19, Tainter was wounded in the battle of Bull Run and discharged after months of convalescence. He joined the Navy and served on the gunboat Choctaw on the Mississippi river, earning the rank of ensign.

After the war he practiced dentistry at Linn, Mo., and Union, Mo. And retired in 1926. Although his eyes were failing he kept abreast of the news by members of his family reading to him.
